

I pay for phone service for my private use not for businesses and organizations to try to make money off of me. If any changes should occur to the Act it should be the banning of any solitation call being outlawed.